

Dan Scripps, Chair

Michigan Public Service Commission

Dan Scripps is the Chair of the Michigan Public Service Commission, a role he has held since July 2020. Mr. Scripps was appointed to the MPSC by Governor Gretchen Whitmer in February 2019 and reappointed in July 2023. As a Commissioner, Mr. Scripps has been an active participant in multiple state energy advisory groups, including the Michigan Council on Climate Solutions, the Upper Peninsula Energy Task Force, the Michigan Dam Safety Task Force, and an Interdepartmental Workgroup on Propane Security.

Mr. Scripps currently chairs MISO's Regional Expansion Criteria and Benefits Working Group as elected by RECBWG members, a role he also held from 2021-2022 during which he led the stakeholder process around cost allocation for MISO's Long-Range Transmission Planning projects. He is also chair of the Organization of MISO States' Cost Allocation Principles Committee (CAPCom) and is a member of the MISO Advisory Committee and Steering Committee. He previously served as president (among other positions) for both the Organization of MISO States and the Mid-America Regulatory Conference.

Mr. Scripps is a member (and past Board member) of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners and is an appointed member of NARUC's Gas-Electric Alignment for Reliability (GEAR) initiative. He previously served all three years on the Joint Federal-State Task Force on Electric Transmission and on NARUC's Task Force on Emergency Preparedness, Recovery, and Resiliency. He is a member of NARUC's Committees on Critical Infrastructure, Gas, and International Relations, as well as NARUC's Washington Action Program, and has been an active participant with NARUC's international programs, participating in regulatory engagements on four continents.

Mr. Scripps is a former member of the Michigan House of Representatives, elected to represent the residents of four Michigan counties along the Lake Michigan shoreline. As a State Representative, Scripps chaired the Banking and Financial Services committee and served on committees dealing with energy, telecommunications, and environmental protection. He has also worked with state and national clean energy trade and philanthropic organizations and practiced law in the Washington D.C. office of Latham & Watkins LLP, a leading global law firm, where he advised regulated utilities, project developers, and financial institutions on cutting edge domestic and international energy projects.

Mr. Scripps is a graduate of Alma College and the University of Michigan Law School. He lives with his family in northern Michigan.
